STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes an unincorporated charity.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The power of appointing trustees is vested in the Executive Committee which comprises trustees elected by the members at the Annual General Meeting. The Executive Committee meets once a month, utilising a number of methods for meetings including telephone conference calls and face-to-face meetings, and remain in daily contact with one another and the Chief Executive via telephone and email. The Executive Committee endeavours to maintain regular communication and will continue to utilise modern technology to aid this communication flow.

The day-to-day running of the charity is delegated to the Chief Executive Officer, A Fulwood.

Risk management

The trustees have a duty to assess the risks associated with the charity. As part of its business planning process, the trustees have examined the major strategic, business and operational risks which the charity faces and confirm that systems have been established to enable regular reports to be produced so that the necessary steps can be taken to lessen these risks.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The charity's objectives are to advance the education of the general public in all areas relating to obsessive compulsive disorders (OCD), to relieve persons suffering from OCD and their carers by the provision of information, advice and support.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

OCD-UK has continued to develop its activities during the year to 31 December 2014, with a closing membership of 758 members (2013: 708) which is an increase on the previous year and numbers are likely to increase in the forthcoming financial year. The trustees are pleased with the achievements of the charity in the furtherance of its objects and note that whilst an overall deficit has been sustained during the year, funds stand at just under £40,000 as at 31 December 2014.

The 'Are you a little bit OCD?' project use of a fun and quirky 'sofa zone' which was set up in public spaces across the East Midlands and engaged the public in conversation about Obsessive-Compulsive Disorder (OCD) and the stigma created through the use of the language we all use. The project allowed OCD-UK to recruit new volunteer relationships which was hugely successful. The project was made possible through funding from the mental health anti-stigma programme, Time to Change, England's biggest programme to end the stigma and discrimination faced by people with mental health problems. The programme is run by the charities Mind and Rethink Mental Illness, and funded by the Department of Health, Comic Relief and the Big Lottery Fund.

Internal and external factors

Part of the charity's daily commitment to the OCD community is to provide mutual support and understanding through various means, including email, telephone, postal letter and online discussion forums. The charity provides this basic but extremely important work on a daily basis, 365 days a year.

Obtaining treatment for OCD is very much hit and miss, with NHS waiting times up to two years in some areas of the country, primarily due to the lack of trained therapists. Through the provision of literature and presentations, OCD-UK works to educate both sufferers and health professionals about OCD and The National Institute for Health and Clinical Excellence (NICE) recommended treatments. The charity continues to lobby MPs and the Department for Health for improved access to psychological talking therapies.

A review of OCD-UK's achievements during the year can be found in the attached Annual Report.

Chair, Kylie Cloke, stepped down to focus on her new career, but will remain active with the charity behind the scenes. The trustees would like to acknowledge and thank Kylie Cloke for the commitment she has shown OCD-UK.

At the end of the year, there was a large deficit of some £12,500 in respect of the Time to Change fund. This was primarily due to the fact that the Time to Change grant income was received in 2013, but was not spent until the 2014 financial year.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Reserves policy

The trustees consider that an appropriate level of reserves for the organisation is the equivalent of 6 months' operating expenditure, approximately £45,000. At 31 December 2014, free reserves stood at £31,413 (2013: £38,042) and restricted funds stood at £7,408 (2013: £19,907). The trustees aim to achieve a maintainable level of free reserves in line with the policy by continuing to increase the charity's membership and thus its incoming resources. The reserves policy will be monitored on an ongoing basis as the charity continues to develop its activities.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of OCD-UK

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 December 2014 set out on pages four to ten.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act)) and that an independent examination is required.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act

have not been met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
